NEWS OF UTAH AND ADJOINING STATES

Ogden News Office-336 Twenty-fifth street. Circulation Department 235 twenty-fifth street.

and Mr. Dee, the purchaser, is the loser. The thief, who is described as a tall, light complexioned fellow of rustic ap-light complexioned fellow of rustic appearance, has eluded all attempts to apprehend him, although the sheriffs' forces of two counties are looking for han.

The stable floors from which the animals were stolen were broken down by main force. The theft was not discovered until early this morning, when the owners went to feed their stock. Green and Blood are next door neighbors. Upand Blood are next door neighbors. Up-on learning of the robbery the citizens of Clearfield formed a posse and searched the surrounding country thoroughly. This afternoon deputy sheriffs from Farming-ton located the animals at the Dee liv-ery stable and learned of the transaction. Descriptions have been sent out to all parts of the country.

FILES SUIT IN COURT TO COLLECT $2,250 CLAIM

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Ogden, Dec. 24.—Presenting a claim for $2,250, with interest at 8 per cent since July 1, 1968, Mrs. Alice E. Kislingbury brought suit in the district court today against Joseph Evans, administrator of the estate of J. D. Carroll, who died intestate, October 26 of this year. She claims to hold a promissory note for that amount, made out to her by the deceased, and alleges that all attempts on her part to collect the note from the administrator of the estate have been futile.

DOES BRISK BUSINESS. Cupid Gets Busy With Hearts of Ogden People.

Ogden, Dec. 24.—Cupid did a brisk Christmas business in the county clerk's office this afternoon. Five licenses to marry were issued within two hours. The recipients were: Lawrence D. Wullard marry were issued within two hours. The recipients were: Lawrence D. Wullard and Marinda Anderson, of Cleveland, Ida.; William Williams of Garfield and Ann Plumlee of Mammoth; Clifford Owens of Rochester, Minn., and Frances Moore of Wilson Lane, Weber county; Orville Deegan, Manhattan, Kan., and Helen M. Stewart of Ogden; George Wilson of New York and Blanche McDougal of Boston.

PRELIMINARY HEARING FOR "DOLLY DIMPLES"

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Ogden, Dec. 24.-Preliminary hearing o the charges of criminal conspiracy against the "Dolly Dimples" people was concluded in the municipal court this morning. L. V. Curry and Fred Richter were bound over to the district court on $500 bail, while Mrs. Curry, better known as "Dolly Dimples," was released on her own recognizance. The case is expected to reach the district court soon after the first of the year.

SMALLPOX EPIDEMIC IN TWO SMALL TOWNS

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Ogden, Dec. 24.—Thirty-five cases of emallpox are now under quarantine at Harrisville and Farr, to the north of Ogden, according to the report of County Commissioner Moore, who made a thorough inspection of the affected districts today. County Physician J. D. tricts today. County Physician J. D. Pidcock is at present confining his attentions to those exposed to the disease, looking for any signs of further out-break. Wherever symptoms of the disease are found a quarantine is estab

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS FOR MORMON CONVERTS

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Ogden, Dec. 24.—Sixty converts to the Mormon church from Europe arrived in Ogden this afternoon over the Union Pacific under the charge of returned missionaries. Most of them were met by friends, who have arranged ahead for Christmas entertainment for the new arrivels. A number continued on to Sali Lake, where they will make their homes

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Dec. 24—Local railroad offices and machine sheps closed at 6 o'clock tonight and will not reopen until Monday morning. The shutdown is unusual and comes as an agreeable surprise to the hundreds of employes who will be able to spend Christmas with their families.

| As far as marters stand now, many knowledge of it. Justice A. A. Noon rendered a verdict in favor of plaintiff.

| COLD DRIVES HUNDREDS | COAL | COA

Whether the "place" is advertised or the servant advertises the want ad. does its part.

Them Left

Choose from every uncalled-for Suit or Overcoat in the house at Your Own Price

And a splendid fancy vest free with every one.

The Tailor 57 West Second South

Rider Is Hurled High in the Air, But Escapes Serious Injury.

grade without steam.

Over Hundred Carloads Are on Way Here From Different Points.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Ogden, Dec. 24.-That the coal situation is gradually adjusting itself in Ogder is to be seen in the announcement of local railroad officials that on four east-ern freight trains arriving in Ogden late last night, 14 carloads of fuel were brought in to the Ogden market, 42 cars were sent on to Salt Lake and 15 cars went to points adjacent to Ogden. Al-though these amounts are considerably less than the present need, coal dealers are cheerful over the prospect and de-clare that if the railroads continue to morning the total aggregate of coal in ing a the bins of retail dealers was 600 tons, but this amount had disappeared completely by nightfall.

UNFORTUNATE CHILDREN

COUNTRY OF THE PEST

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Provo, Dec. 24.—A number of the Garden city Nimrods have decided to give a rabbit hunt to Cedar Valley immediately after the first of the year. In addition to the sport of rabbit hunting, the Nimrods are promised a dance at the Mozart The bunnles have become so numerous in that section that crops are badly dam-aged by the pests. The county commis-sioners have agreed to pay 4 cents bounty, and this may be raised to 5 cents in an effort to rid that section of rabbits. The date set for the hunt is January 4. A spe-cial train will be run from Provo to Lehi Lunction.

ASSESSED VALUATIONS FOR SANPETE COUNTY

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Mt. Pleasant, Dec. 24.—The assessed val-uation of the cities and school districts uation of the cities and school districts for Sanpete county, according to the county reports, are as follows: Manti, $788,729; Sterling, $123,350; Ephralm, $711,527; Wales, $81,147; Chester, $164,230; Fountain Green, $233,959; Moroni, $327,209; Meadowville, $41,720; Mt. Pleasant, $841,991; Spring City, $278,492; Indianola, $130,811; Milburn, $139,130; Fairview, $386,518; Pleasant View, $76,284; Gunnison. $517,276; Mayfield, $114,401; Fayette, $72,262. Total assessed valuation, $5,028,946.

ARGUES HIS OWN CASE AND IS AWARDED VERDICT

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Provo, Dec. 24.—It isn't often that a man pleads his own case in any of the courts in Provo, but such was the case today, and it ended in victory for the man. The case was to recover possession of a shotgun, which Thomas Summer alleged he loaned to Warren Ekins at the latter's request last October. Ekins declarated appears that the time for the commissioners to have acted should have been when the petition of the 100 sign-ers was presented, but when they once ordered the election for incorporation, the power to annul passed beginning the power to annul passed beginning the power to an acted the power to annul passed beginning the power to an acted should have acted should have been when the petition of the 100 sign-ers was presented, but when they once ordered the election for incorporation, the power to annul passed beginning to the power to an acted should have been when the petition of the 100 sign-ers was presented, but when they once ordered the election for incorporation, the power to annul passed beautiful the power to an acted should have been when the petition of the 100 sign-ers was presented, but when they once ordered the election for incorporation, the power to annul passed beautiful the power to an acted should have been when the petition of the 100 sign-ers was presented, but when they once ordered the election for incorporation, the power to annul passed beautiful the power to an acted should have the power to acted should have (Special to The Herald-Republican.) Mt. Pleasant, Dec. 24.—The quail with which this section was stocked several years ago are flocking to this city at the warm weather. This winter they are leading dealers in camp, are without a driven by cold and hunger direct into the city, to straw stacks and barn yards, and in many places are fed alongside of lable" will be in the grasp of a coal fam-

FRIENDS MOURN AT BIER. Popular Young Man Is Buried in

Glenwood Cemetery. (Special to The Herald-Republican.)

The high regard in which Mr. Hartwell The high regard in which Mr. Hartweil was held was expressed in the magnificent floral tributes, which completely covered the casket. The following served as pallbearers: Bernard Woods, Perry Baker, Storme Platt, Will Shea, Emmette Shields and Will Malvey. Burial mette Shields and Will Malvey.

vas in Glenwood cemetery DATE AGAIN CHANGED.

Foresters' Convention Will Be Held As Originally Planned.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Dec. 24.—Again the date of the foresters' convention to be held in Ogden next month has been changed at the request of prominent foresters' of Washington, who are desirous of attending. The original date was from January 10 to 14 inclusive. To metable and made an shipments.

PARK CITY ORE SHIPMENTS.
(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Park City, Dec. 24.—Ore shipments for the week were as follows: Daly Very Daly Judge, L170,000; Daly-Judge, L170,000; Daly-Jud (Special to The Herald-Republican.)

ENGINE HITS A SLEIGH XMAS JOY VANISHES

see the train, which was traveling down & law, A. Reese of Salt Lake, was & & be with her, having come from Salt & Lake after the death of his 4 🌣 wife two weeks ago. Mr. Reese 💠 st also lost all of his belongings in st

When the flames were extin- & guished only a portion of the walls & *********

Authorities Propose to Stop Illicit Business in Richfield if Possible.

(Special to 'The Herald-Republican.) Richfield, Dec. 24.—Yesterday was are cheerful over the prospect and declare that if the railroads continue to supply as large an amount as has arrived in the last few days, they will be able to get through the present cold snap without serious trouble.

One hundred carloads of coal are now en route to Ogden and other nearby points, according to the railroad announcements, and it is said the greater portion of this is for local dealers. This morth of Salt Lake, will probably die as a result of the terrible injuries she received. Her attending physician, Dr. William Stevenson, said last night that they were investigating certain mining property in Marysvale and were awaiting the arrival of associates to close up a deal. This was accepted and they were hailed as men with the portion of this is for local dealers. This morth of Salt Lake, will probably die as a result of the terrible injuries she received. Her attending physician, Dr. William Stevenson, said last night that they were investigating certain mining property in Marysvale and were awaiting the arrival of associates to close up a deal. This was accepted and they were hailed as men with the price, and the men who have been domaining the total aggregate of coal in this city. Two or three weeks ago to the cribe injuries she received. Her attending physician, Dr. William Stevenson, said last night that they were investigating certain mining property in Marysvale and were awaiting the arrival of associates to close up a deal. This was accepted and they were hailed as men with the price, and the men who have been donor to the terrible injuries she received. Her attending physician, Dr. William Stevenson, said last night that they were investigating certain mining property in Marysvale and were available as a result of the terrible injuries she received. Her attending physician, Dr. Under the country with the result of the terrible injuries she received. Her attending physician, Dr. Under the city of the certain mining property in Marysvale and were a very more than doubtful.

Leaving her the d to their hearts with the result that fifteen separate and distinct cases of liquor selling were filed against John Miller and Messrs, Flint and Anderson, the two latter having taken over the Ed Clark business recently. Under the new ordinance the penalty attached to the illicit sale of liquor is a jail sentence of three to six months. Heretofore all cases against the liquor (Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Dec. 24.—A real Santa Claus came down a real chimney at the State School for the Deaf and Blind tonight and brought more presents than the inmates of the institution dared to dream that he had. As a token of the appreciation of the visit, the inmates of the school gave a program of music that was school for the school gave a program of music that was a large audience. There was a big Christmas tree.

worth care, worth ca

MAYOR LOWRY APPOINTS

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Manti, Dec. 24.-Mayor William B. Low y, elected last November to succeed inself, has announced the following apcointments for committees for the year 910: Irrigation, Ernest Munk and Jacob Wintsch; streets and lighting, W. W. Brown and Andrew O. Anderson; public grounds and city property, A. O. Anderson and Fred C. Keller; police and city prison, Jacob Wintsch and Fred C. Keller; finance and auditing, Fred C, Kellmony. A verdict of death by natural ler and W. W. Brown; engrossing and causes was returned printing, A. O. Anderson and Jacob Wintsch; laws and revisions, W. W. Brown and Fred C. Keller; claims, Jacob Wintsch and W. W. Brown.

MAMMOTH NOW A CITY.

Annulling of Incorporation by County Commissioners Ignored.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Nephi, Dec. 24.—The order of the board of county commissioners, annulling the incorporation of Mammoth and Robinson as a city under the name of Mammoth City has been entirely ignored, and the whole proceedings of the election have been certified to of the election have been certified to the secretary of state by County Clerk Vickers. It is understood that the commissioners acted upon a petition asking for annulment on the grounds that the original petition was not signed by 100 property owners. It appears that the time for the commissioners to have acted whould have out Pound of Fuel. (Special to The Herald-Republican.) years ago are flocking to this city at present by the hundreds from the mountains east of here, where they live during Bingham, Dec. 24.—The coal situation is getting to be acute in Bingham. The Bingham Coal & Lumber company, the COAL SCARCITY IS FELT Mt. Pleasant Citizens Are Latest to Feel Shortage.

Park City, Dec. 24.—Funeral services for Charles Hartwell, the young man who died in this city Wednesday morning from typhoid pneumonia, were held from the Congregational church this agentual at 2 o'clock. The services were largely attended by relatives, friends and schoolmates of Mr. Hartwell, who gathered to pay their last tribute of respect and esteem. A short, but impressive, funeral sermon was delivered by Rev. Allowed the supply of the Utah Fuel company has also been cut down recently. (Special to The Herald-Republican.)

FUNERAL OF MRS. ALICE DEAN. (Special to The Herald-Republican.) Ogden, Dec. 24.—Funeral services over the body of Mrs. Alice Dean, one of the best known women of Ogden, were held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Lynne ward meeting house. They were largely attended by representative people sen, Bishop George Smuin, Bishop James Taylor and E. A. Larkin. Interment was made in the City cemetery.

The speakers were Bishop David Jen

SO THE PEOPLE MAY KNOW.

In column four, page 16, the for- $ ty-year-old Tribune yesterday anof the First Presbyterian church ❖ would give Christmas exercises at ❖ ❖ the church this evening at 7:30 ❖

• o'clock."
• In column five, page 16, and al- • most paralleling the first item, • appeared an item under the head- 4 ♦ ing of "ENJOYABLE EXER-♦
♦ CISES AT FIRST PRESBY-♦
♦ TERIAN CHURCH." In this item ♦

STOLE BLOODED HORSES

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Dec. 24.—Timothy O'Neil, of Uintah, seven miles east of Ogden, was struck by Union Pacific wes-500und freight train No. 53, early this morning the track in a bob sleigh, to white weer clear of the track, the cowcarden were clear of the track, the cowcarden were clear of the track, the cowcarden of Clearfield, some time last night, by a thief, who sold them this morning to Claude Dec, a local livery man, for 75 cach. The horses were recovered by the sheriff of Davis county this afternoon, and Mr. Dee, the purchaser, is the loser. The third, who is described as a tail, light complexioned fellow of rustic applications.

Injury.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Dec. 24.—Timothy O'Neil, of Uintah, seven miles east of Ogden, was struck by Union Pacific wes-500und freight train No. 53, early this morning the track in a bob sleigh, to white were attached two horses. The horses were clear of the track, the cowcatched with but slight injuries. He was crossing the track in a bob sleigh, to white were attached two horses. The horses were clear of the track, the cowcatched when she gave up, her home was offered union and selection of the first presbyterian country this afternoon, and Mr. Dee, the purchaser, is the loser. The horses were recovered by the sheriff of Davis country this afternoon, and the distinction of the track in a bob sleigh, to white were attached two horses. The horses were recovered by the sheriff of Davis country this afternoon, and the disturbed about the office, and the editor in a which was traveling down and sent to the horse were reported to smother the fiames, of the track, the cowcatched when she gave up, her home was practically destroyed.

When the home of Mrs. Harry the sheriff of the regist that the first term of the track, the cowcatched when she gave up, her home was practically destroyed.

When the home of Mrs. Harry the clitty the triple of the regist that the first term of the track, the cowcatched when she gave Infuriated Animal Buries Her Horns in Body of Mrs. Alma Jacobson.

cow until she finally managed to drag to Salt Lake City, and the action at surprise day for the men who have Jacobson of Centerville, thirteen miles doubtful.

Leaving her two infant children in the kitchen of her home, Mrs. Jacobson had started across the dooryard, in which a usually gentel Jersey cow was grazing. Mr. Jacobson was in Salt Lake on business at the time, and there were no other persons within calling distance. While crossing the yard the woman was attacked by the beast, which had become infuriated, probably by the scarlet hue to handle all of the steel work in Salt Lake.

There are at present several hundred structural iron workers here, many of whom are idle because of the cessation of building operations. The number of men skilled in bridge and iron work is being steadily increased, and the local union charges the Real Estate associa-infuriated, probably by the scarlet hue of her wearing apparel.

Thrown to the ground and pinioned for a moment by the weight of the animal, more men here on the ground that there is pleased by the managed to extricate herself. Pursued by the maddened cow, Mrs. Jacobson fell into the door of her kitchen, frightening her children, who were too small to realize their mother's a discontinuous standard in the local union charges the Real Estate association and other agencies with bringing more men here on the ground that there form it.

Appeal to Federation.

As a result of the meeting last night

IMPORTANT COMMITTEES DEATH DUE TO NATURAL

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) a coroner's inquest was asked for by relatives. Two young men who had been stopping at the home of Creer were summoned, and both gave satisfactory testimoned, and both gave satisfactory testimoned the work that is to be done this winter, prevailed and the vote was in favor of the closed door.

MANTI COURT CALENDAR Several Cases Await Trial in Seventh Judicial District.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)

felony; state vs. David Larsen, felony; for Mt. Pleasant vs. John A. Averett, appeal ply. Mt. Pleasant vs. John A. Averett, appeal from justice court.
Trial calendar—George McCune vs. J. C. Livingston; John H. Seely vs. Andrew Oman and Asa Reynolds; Charles O. Dorius vs. Deseret Irrigation Co.; Central Utah Wool Co. vs. Mart Mortensen; R. W. Dotson vs. James W. Hoggan; Silver Creek & Sanpitch Reservoir Co. vs. Hyrum Jackson; John H. Seely vs. Auer W. Proctor et al.; W. D. Livingston et al. vs. Manti City, petition for segregation of certain real estate from said city; Boon Brotherson vs. Chris Brotherson; Boon Brotherson vs. Chris Brotherson; Lorenzo Edwards vs. B. R. McDonald, motion for a new trial; Mt. Pleasant Com-mercial & Savings Bank vs. George Quinn, demurrer; Christiana Woolsey vs. Richard M. Woolsey, demurrer.

SOLD LIQUOR TO MINORS.

Are Warned. (Special to The Herald-Republican.) Manti, Dec. 24.—Justice Abner Lowry of Sterling gave warning to the saloon men of this county who dispose of liquor to minors, in his decision against Alfred Bailey of Ephraim, who was convicted before the Sterling justice during the week. Bailey, who was bartender in the Pehrson saloon at Ephraim, was given a fine of $100 for the offense. The testimony of the boys at the trial showed they were not asked concerning their age. Other cases of a similar character will be given attention by the country authorities in the near future.

STATE BANK IS OPENED. C. W. Buckholz Is Cashier of the New Institution.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Bingham, Dec. 24.—The new Citizens' State bank opened its doors today in the Bolognese block for the transaction of a general banking business. C. W. Buckholz, formerly cashier of the Bingham State bank, is cashier of the new institution.

FUNERAL OF MRS. WILLIAMS. (Special to The Herald-Republican.) Spanish Fork, Dec. 24.—The funeral of Mrs. Sarah Williams was held Thursday afternoon at the Fourth Ward meeting house. Bishop Hansen presided. The speakers were Albert Swensen, D. J. Lewis and John Moore. Music was furnished by the ward choir, and Miss Mary C. Evans sang "Face to Face."

Mrs. Williams is survived by five sons and one daughter, She was 75 years of

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)

Nephi, Dec. 24.—Ivan Wood, the young son of Postmaster Dennis Wood, died this morning of Bright's disease after a lingering illness of several months' duration.

Lewiston, Me., Dec. 24.—Two firemen were killed and three severely injured in a fire here today. They were working on the ruins when two walls collapsed.

Cold

is here and nothing is more stimulating and healthy than a pot of good tea. Hewlett's Teas are always good.

Will Fight All Agencies Sending Laboring Men to This City.

APPEAL TO FEDERATION

MOVEMENT WILL BECOME ONE OF CONSIDERABLE MAGNITUDE. Open war was declared last night by the structural iron workers upon all Gored and trampled by a maddened agencies that are sending laboring men herself bleeding and mortally wounded into the door of her home, Mrs. Alma Jacobson of Centerville, thirteen miles branches of skilled labor, making the movement one of the greatest of its ing in that district, so severely injured kitchen, frightening her children, who were too small to realize their mother's peril. Feeling her strength rapidly waning, the woman attempted to reach the home of a neighbor, and was again attacked by the enraged cow, which leaped a barred fence to reach her. It was only after another one-sided battle that the woman was able to make known her condition.

The structural iron workers openly self up.

As a result of the ineeting last light of the meeting last light of the sent to all the building trades councils affiliated with the American federation, and to the parent body itself, asking that, in the cause of workingmen generally, no more skilled laborers be sent to Salt Lake, as the building operations do not lake, as the building operations do not lake, as the building operations do not derive it to him when he suddenly pointed a revolver in my face, or justify it. The situation as seen by the skilled workmen in Salt Lake will be made of secondary importance because of the discussion. Many argued for an open door, but squad of four policemen to search the Spanish Fork, Dec. 24.—Owing to mysterious circumstances surrounding the death of Mathias Creer early Thursday, that most of the workmen here have the closed door. The structural iron workers say that other unions will take the matter up, and that sentiment along this same line has been brewing for some time. They deny that the movement is detrimental to Salt Lake, because they are protecting the city from being flooded with skilled workmen who are brought here under false pretenses, and who Manti, Dec. 24.—The court calendar of the Seventh judicial district court, beginning January 10 in this city, is as follows. They further charge that they have been the first to constant the first the first to constant the first to constant the first t have been the first to encourage the im-Criminal-State vs. Ruthevin Monroe, portation of new men when the demand for workmen was greater than the sup-

Officers Elected.

The union elected officers as follows: President, James Kindred; vice president, C. F. Jones; recording secreteary, D. P. Sackett; financial secretary and business agent, J. E. Munsey; treas-urer, J. F. Snider; sergeant-at-arms, Daniel Fowler; trustees, E. LeFleur, Ed bridgemen enjoyed a smoker with the tra week's salary for each one concompliments of E. H. Dundas, a local nected with the company.

Bartender Gets Stiff Fine and Others ALL PRISONERS WILL EAT CHRISTMAS PIE

Prisoners at the state prison, the county jail and the city jail will today smack their lips over the best menus that have been given at these institutions for many

TWO FIREMEN KILLED.

ESTABLISHED DINE PRICE TO ALL

GOOD MORNING!

CLOSED

TODAY!

We extend to you the Compliments of the Season, and wish you

A Merry Christmas F. AUERBACH & BRO.

STORE

Takes Shot but His Man Escapes.

Nursing a bullet wound either in the A back or leg, a young highwayman, who at 12:45 o'clock this morning held up and robbed the Roma saloon, 60 South West WEALTH-PRODUCING DISTRICT Temple street, is believed to be in hidthat he will eventually have to give him

When he had robbed the saloon and was dashing in the direction of an alley, di- former governor of Utah during terrirectly across South West Temple street, torial days, in northern Utah and Frank Landy, proprietor of the saloon, fired three shots at him from a revolver. He says the highwayman fell to the street with the second shot, but regained his $300,000 by Salt Lake and Ogden capfeet and sped in the direction of the al-dashing in the direction taken by fleeing holdup, followed him nearly Included in the 40,000-acre tract are

A private safe may be rented in the fire and burglar proof vault of the Sait Lake Security & Trust Co., 32 up Main areet, $2.00 per year and upwards

Samuel Newhouse Generously Remembers All His Employes With Checks,

"Merry Christmas to officers and employes of the Newhouse Realty," was the greeting cabled from Paris to A. S. Bibbins, manager of the Newhouse Realty company, by Samuel Newhouse, who is now at the home of his brother in the French capital. Just to show that he meant what he said when he wished the officers and employes of the company a really merry Christmas, Mr. Newhouse added to his cablegram:

"Remember all with checks as in-

IN HONOR OF PROPHET. Joseph Smith's Birthday Fittingly

THIRTY DAYS IN JAIL

FOR KILLING A MULE

Chief With Handsome Gift.

Chief of Police S. M. Barlow was presented a gold watch yesterday afternoon by his patrolmen as a token of Christmas regard. When he had replied to this presentation, members of the detective department presented him a gold chain and elk-tooth charm.

It with a pick.

EX-SENATOR'S FUNERAL.

Lawrence, Kan., Dec. 24.—Ex-Senator W. A. Harris of Kansas, who died in Chicago last Monday, was buried for the detective department was made by E. A. Rogers, prosecuting attorney of the police court.

The chief with Handsome Gift.

Chief Of Police S. M. Barlow was presented a gold watch yesterday afternoon the large area of timber located in the large area of timber located in on the property. There is a large tract of fine pine timber is especially adapted for the making of railroad ties. Some of the trees are from three to four feet in diameter. It is the intention to build sawmills and prepare the lumber for the market.

OIL LAMP EXPLOSION

CAUSES NINE DEATHS

Hillsville, Pa., Dec. 24.—In a fire here early today, caused by the explosion of an assuring them of his hearty appreciation, members of the detective department was made the presentation, members of the detective department was made by E. A. Rogers, prosecuting at torney of the property. There is a large tract of fine pine timber lone to the point of the tract. This timber is a large tract of fine pine

VICTIM OF DAN CUPID. Midshipman Dismissed From Naval

tion of their good will and esteem

Proprietor of Roma Saloon Million Dollars Is Involved in the Latest Irrigation Deal.

RICH FARMING LAND

TO BE TAPPED BY NEW LINE.

Forty thousand acres of land acquired by the late George W. Emery, He says the highwayman fell to the street with the second shot, but regained his feet and sped in the direction of the aley, limping.

Patroiman A. M. Kast heard the shots and Grant of the million dollar with the purchase price is not given out at this time it is said to be not far from the million-dollar wind dealing in the direction taken by the fleeing holdup, followed him nearly a block, when his tracks in the snow became indistinct. From the point where is plenty of work and no one to perform it.

Appeal to Federation.

As a result of the meeting last night a direct appeal will be sent to all the building trades councils affiliated with the American federation, and to the The cow was driven away by neighbors and Dr. Stevenson summoned. Besides numerous cuts and bruises, Mrs. Jacobson suffered internal injuries which are believed to be of a mortal nature.

DEATH DUE TO NATURAL

CAUSES IS JURY'S VERDICT

The stevenson summoned. Besides skilled workmen in Salt Lake will be explained through all avenues of explained through all aven tion for the products raised on the new

To Develop New Country. With the idea of showing to the un-elievers what the country can produce the fruit and grain line a large dem-nistration farm will be established in the part of the tract not yet decided

It is the intention of the company which has bought this large tract to develop all the country in that section and thus make tributary to Salt Lake another wealth-producing district. A part of the property adjoins the claims of the Century and Suzanna mining companies. The large vein of mineralized quartz which pensirates the property.

"Remember all with checks as in-structed." townsite are thousands of acres of land suitable for grazing purposes, with Daniel Fowler; trustees, E. LeFleur, Ed Collins and C. M. Berry.

The only fight for office was that on business agent, Mr. Munsey being reelected on the first ballot. Following the election and during the long debate upon the "home guard" question the bridgemen enjoyed a smoker with the Close of Year's Dealing. Negotiations toward the closing of the big deal have been on for more than two years past, and were con-In honor of the birthday anniversary of the prophet Joseph Smith a number of friends met at the residence of Mrs. Elizabeth J. D. Roundy, Thursday, to honor the memory of the noted friend of man.

Thursday, at the state of the noted friend of the since his sound of the noted friend since his sound of the property of the noted friend since his sound of the property of the noted friend since his sound of the property of the noted friend since his sound of the property of the noted friend since his sound in for more ducted principally by Harold Lafount, who is the general manager of the company. During the lifetime of the sound in form the ducted principally by Harold Lafount, who is the general manager of the company. During the lifetime of the sound in form the sound in form the sound in form the sound in the sound in form the sound in form the sound in form the sound in the sound in form the sound i warden Arthur Pratt at the state prison on said last night that his prisoners would have a roast pork dinner. There will be a musical program at the state prison, under the direction of the Christian Endeavors.

Sheriff Joseph C. Sharp had charge of the arrangement of the Christians dinner program for his guests at the county jail. The menu will be topped with chicken dumplings and cranberry sauce. The prisoners will be given an opportunity to see friends.

Practically all the police officials have been more or less interested in the Christmas dinner for the unfortunates in the city jail.

Difficers and Detectives Remember

Enzabeth s. Donor the memory of the noted friend from the memory of the conducted with the death, some months ago, ne-double from the memory of the conducted with the death, some months ago, ne-double from the memory of the conducted with the death, some months ago, ne-double from the memory of the noted friend from have been conducted with the death, some month in the death, some monted with the death, Hillsville, Pa., Dec. 24.—In a fire here early today, caused by the explosion of an oil lamp in a boarding house, nine persons were burned to death. The victims, all foreigners, were a man, his wife, five children and two boarders.

Rent payers have noticed that the most desirable places to live always "happen" to be adver-

Established 1841. #1 Offices, The Oldest and Largest. R. G. DUN & CO. GEORGE RUST, General Manages Utah, Idaho, Wyoming and Nevada. Offices in Progress Building, Salt Lake